

Respect in Sport Policy

Purpose of the Policy:

Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Corporation is committed to creating a sport environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Coaches have a responsibility to create a sporting environment that is free of harassment, abuse, bullying and neglect.

Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Corporation requires that all coaches participating in Skeet Shooting have completed the online Respect in Sport (RiS) certification (or equivalency), as required by Sask Sport Inc.

Scope and Application:

1. The policy applies to all coaches registered or named on an official sport roster under the membership jurisdiction of the Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Corporation.
2. Coaches not holding valid certification will have until September 30 of each year to complete the RiS certification training or training equivalency such as NCCP Empower+, Hockey's "Speak Out" program or Respect in School program.
3. The Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Corporation is responsible for setting out the communication strategy specific to the certification requirements and deadline.

Enforcement:

- Any coach not having RiS certification (or equivalency) by the deadline established will be removed as a coach until such time that the course is completed.
- Non-compliance with this policy may result in further discipline as determined by the Board of Directors or in accordance with Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Corporation's policy.

RiS Administration:

Our Secretary/Treasurer will have administrative access to the RiS database to oversee functions such as report generation and monitoring.

Review and Approval:

This policy was approved by the Saskatchewan Skeet Shooting Board of Directors on May 11, 2013 and will be reviewed by the Executive Committee on an annual basis.
